

Then I Call You

I'd love to see your face in the mornin',
just as the sunlight brings sight back to my eyes.
But I wake alone,
and then call you on the phone to say

I'd love to laugh our way through the dark streets, stopping to gaze at your face and relish our sweet kisses.
But I wander the streets alone
and then call you on the phone to say

I'd love to hold your hand in the moonlight, feel the world slip away as my head rests on your shoulder.
But I gaze at the moon alone
and then call you on the phone to say

I'd love to make love down in the tall grass, fall asleep with your arm pillowed beneath my head.
But I lie in the grass alone and then
call you on the phone to say

I'd love to walk through life beside you, feel the peace of your love everywhere I go.
But I walk through my life alone and then,
call you on the phone to say

It's a gift enough just to love you,
to fall back into love every time I see you.
So I stay alone and then
call you on the phone to say

I love you.
I love you.
I love you.

Anything

Is there anything I could offer you,
is there anything I could say,
that would take the pain you're feeling,
and simply make it melt away?

For I would give anything to end these years of pain,
to give you back your life my love,
so that you may live again.

But perhaps there isn't anything,
no not anything but time,
that you need to mend your heart love,
now that you are mine.

For I would give

So I'll hold you while you cry my love,
and I'll listen to your pain,
and the tears will melt the pain away,
'til you find your joy again.

And that might just be everything you need to end this pain,
to take back your life my love,
so that you my live again.

Yes, that might just.....

Every Second

Every second
every moment
every day my love

Every heartbeat
every whisper
every breath my love

For you are the love of my life.
You are my love.

Every inch of you
every thing you do
all of you, my love

Every where I go
darling, don't you know
I take your love, my love

For you are the love of my life.
You are my love.

Every thing we do
is a dream come true
everything my love

Every single day
darling, every way
so in love, my love

For you are the love of my life.
You are my love.

Every second
every moment
every day, my love (repeat)

Every second
every moment (repeat)

Every moment
every moment
every moment

It Would've Been Enough

You finding me
would've been enough.
Then you loved me.
Then I fell in love with you.

Loving you would have been enough.
Then you held me.
Then I saw you and I knew.

I knew that you would always,
knew that I would ever be with you.

Knowing you,
would've been enough.
Then the laughter.
Then the heaven when we touch.

And I knew that.....

Life with you,
would've been enough.
Then every longing,
every dream kept coming true.
Every longing,
every dream kept coming true.

And I knew that..... (repeat)

You finding me,
would've been enough,
would've been enough,
would've been enough.

Never Dreamed

When I was
a little girl
I loved you.

When I was
a little girl
you loved me too.

When I was
a little girl
you were my best friend.

When I was
a little girl
I never dreamed it would end.

Never dreamed
it would be a lifetime
before I would see you again.

Never dreamed
you would search for a lifetime
until you found me again.

Never dreamed
of such a lifetime.

Never dreamed
of so much pain.

Never dreamed
that after such a lifetime
I could have a life again.

Never dreamed
never dreamed
of you

When I was
a little girl
I loved you.

When I was
a little girl
you loved me too.

When I was
a little girl
you were my best friend.

When I was
a little girl
I knew it would never end.

I knew it could never end.

And it will never end.

Thus Spoke Joan

She said that the day would come when the thrill would pass.

Thus spoke Joan.

Thus spoke Joan.

Thus spoke Joan

She said it was ever so that love doth fade
and you ought to know.

Thus spoke Joan.

Thus spoke Joan

Thus spoke Joan
for how could she know
that love such as ours
can save a soul.

Thus spoke Joan
for rarer than gold is love such as ours
that never grows old.

Thus spoke Joan
but soon she will see
that love such as ours
ever will be.

She said that the day would come when you'd had your thrill and be back on your own.

Thus spoke Joan.

Thus spoke Joan.

She said that you ought to know that our love would last perhaps a year or so.

Thus spoke Joan.

Thus spoke Joan

(chorus)

She said I might love you dear
but the cold hard truth was that the end is near

Thus spoke Joan.

Thus spoke Joan

She said it was clear as day that I'd have my fun
and be on my way.

Oh, no Joan.

Not this time, Joan

So Much More

It's so much more than love.
It's so much more than falling.
It's so much more than in.
It's so much more my darling.

It's so much more than right.
It's so much more than always.
It's so much more than ever.
It's so much more.

It's so much more than rings.
It's so much more than diamonds.
It's so much more than romance.
It's so much more I'm finding.

It's so much more than say.
It's so much more than feel.
It's so much more than know.
It's so much more.

It's so much more than now.
It's so much more than then.
It's so much more than soon.
It's so much more than when.

It's so much more than me.
It's so much more than you.
It's so much more than we.
It's so much more.

Instrumental solo

(Repeat entire song)

It's so much more
It's so much more than love.
It's so much more than love.
It's so much more.
It's so much more.
It's so much more than love.

The Perfect Gift

'Tis the season for diamonds and romance.
'Tis the season for gifts 'neath the tree.
So my darling I smile when you ask me,
to say what my dream gift would be.

And this, I answer.
This, my darling, my darling

If we didn't have to say goodbye,
if all night long in your arms I could lie,
if we could make love 'til the mornin' comes,
that would be, all right with me.

If we...
that would be the perfect gift for me.

As the countdown begins to the new year,
as our minds fill with hopes and with dreams,
in my mind there's a sweet dream a forming.
can you guess what that dream could be?

Can you guess my love?
Can you guess my darling, my darling?

That I won't have to say goodbye,
and all night long in your arms I will lie,
and we will make love 'til the mornin' comes.
That would be a dream come true for me.

Yes...
That would be all right with me.

As my plane takes off down the runway,
as it flies up out over the sea,
to you love I make this dear promise,
of a day that soon will be.

And this I swear.
This my darling, my darling.

That you won't have to say goodbye,
and all night long in my arms you will lie
and we will make love 'til the mornin' comes,
if that would be all right with thee.

Yes you... and we will make love 'til each mornin' comes

That will be.
That will be.
That will be.
That will be.

Love, Pain

Love

Pain

The pain of loving you
through the pain

my love

(repeat)

I will always

want to hear.

I will always

want to know.

Always,

my love

Love

Pain

You go on loving me
through the pain

my love

(repeat)

I will always

want to say.

I will always

want to know.

Always,

my love

Love

Pain

We love each other
through the pain

my love

(repeat)

Instrumental solo

Repeat last verse.

But I Will

I couldn't possibly love you any more,
but I will, I will, I will.
Heart of my heart, I love you truly.
With each beat of my heart, I love you more.

(Repeat)

You've always been there even though our love is new so what on earth am I supposed to do, but love you and love you and love you some more,
because that's what my heart was created for.

(chorus)

As far as we can see, we are there together and yet our dance of love has just begun.
You send my whole being soaring and gliding,
with every breath, every one.
You send my whole being soaring and gliding,
with every breath, every one.

(chorus)

My eyes were created to gaze upon your face,
my ears to hear your laughter and your sighs,
my hands to touch you,
my arms to draw you near,
my breath, each breath, to breath you in.

As far.....

(chorus)

Because that's what my heart was created for.

Another Love Song

I don't want to write you another love song.
I'm tired of writing my feelings down.
I just want to have you beside me.
I just want to have you hangin' round.

So won't you please be with me?
Won't you please be with me?
Won't you please be with me?
Won't you please be with me?

I don't want to write you another love song.
Not with you livin' so far away.
Not another verse, not another line dear.
Not until you tell me you're here to stay.

(chorus)

Didn't want to write you another love song.
But darlin' what else was I gonna do?
But sit right down and write another love song.
Another song about loving you.

(chorus x2)
